DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-18, 20-28, and 30-33 are allowed in view of the prior art.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As to claim 1, the prior art of record, taken either alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious a device for sensing the pressure of an environment, the device comprising, among other essential features, at least one periodic refractive index perturbation disposed in the optical fiber at a location proximal to the distal end of the optical fiber for providing a measurement of a temperature effect upon the gap within the tube, in combination with the rest of the limitations of the above claim.

As to claim 20, the prior art of record, taken either alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious a pressure sensor for use in harsh environments, the sensor comprising, among other essential features, a housing defining a sensor chamber, the housing having a proximal end and a distal end, the distal end of the housing having a port formed therein, the sensor mounted within the sensing chamber such that the proximal end of the optical fiber extends through a pressure seal disposed in a wall of the housing forming a proximal end of the sensing chamber, in combination with the rest of the limitations of the above claim.

As to claim 27, the prior art of record, taken either alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious a pressure sensing system for sensing pressures, the system comprising, among other essential elements, analyzing means in optical communication with the bi-directional coupler for analyzing the light reflected by the Fabry-Perot optical cavity in the pressure sensor to determine changes in pressure sensed by the pressure sensor, the analyzing means configured to determine a width of a gap in the Fabry-Perot optical cavity from a distance determined between two interference fringes within the cavity and to determine a pressure value from the width of the gap, in combination with the rest of the limitations of the above claim.

With further regard to the above, please see the applicant's arguments and remarks dated April 4, 2008 in response to the previous Office action of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US Pat. 6,439,055 to Maron et al.
